Brian -
I can't think of anything good to say about you so I'll just lie a little bit. I think your a really a sweet guy, and maybe a little bit cute, and maybe a tad serious. (Don't get a big head!)
I'm really glad I've known you this year.
Lots of love
Love
Dumie

P.S. I'll carry your uniform anytime!!

- Mack -
you're a real nice, cute, crazy & friendly guy. I've enjoyed having you my class! Thanks for all the rides and fun times.

I'll always be there
Julie

Thinking back maybe all the goals weren't met, maybe all the grades weren't great and maybe all those terrific dates weren't so terrific. But there's satisfaction in knowing that despite frayed nerves and broken hearts, you make it through. For those graduating, we wish you the best and for those returning, we hope you will always be . . .

Beginning a new school year always brings anticipation. As nervous Freshmen searched for classes, self assured Seniors mingled with friends in the halls. The 1st weeks are exciting, but even in the beginning, we're

Hoping for more

The year started out pretty much the same as always . . . except there seemed to be a rising, ever-present feeling in students that maybe the past couple of years hadn't meant enough and they appeared to be caught in a feeling of . . .

1. Anticipating a Homecoming victory, Seniors Leah Trammell and Brenda McGee march the spirit torch around the square. 2. A Suzuki provides Coach John Kennedy an outlet for his wild side. 3. Early arrival to school allows Valerie Clark needed time to finish an assignment. 4. Rainy weather doesn't seem to dampen the spirits of Charlotte Brown, Felecia Bowman, Barbra Miller or Latacha Carter as they seek shelter from an umbrella. 5. Nieves Rodriguez enjoys a moment of relaxation before returning from lunch break. 6. Stingerettes perform the "Bicycle" in hopes of arousing spirit for the football team.

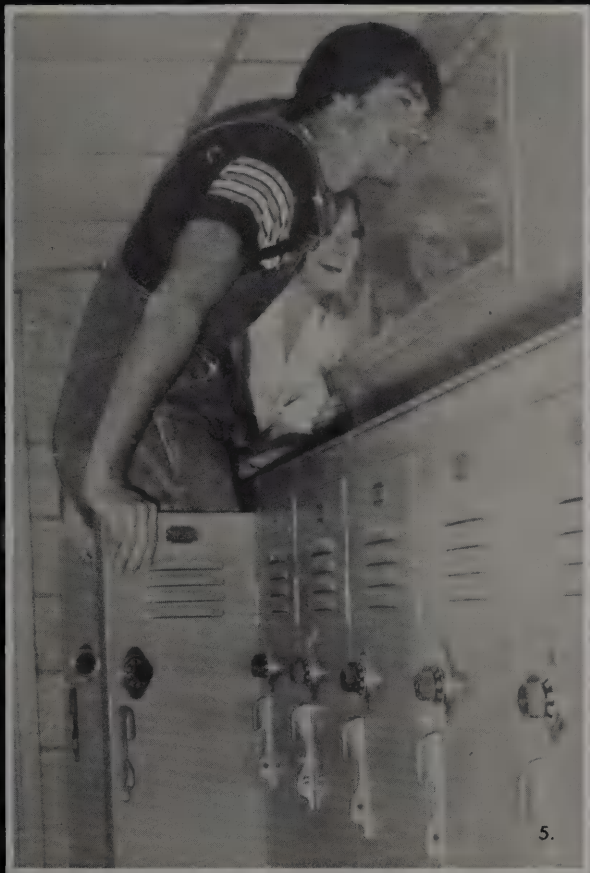

The feeling grew and although at first it wasn't widespread, among a few it was very intense. The few began to make a noise that was heard by even non-interested students. People began to see that caring could make a difference and slowly it grew, this feeling of . . .

1. Scott Bullard finds that lunch break doesn't allow one time enough to chat with Junior classmates. ❖ Football manager Leia Curtis and injured player Jim Labosky take time out to watch a volleyball game before delivering water to Bruce Field. ❖ Julie Mathes caught informing fellow Seniors Dayna Talton and Kim Ramsey the latest scoop. 4. Junior Shannon Springer and Senior Cindy Long take advantage of their daily lunch break to soak up some sun. 5. Busy office assistants Mary Harup and Cliff Foster discover an unconventional way to deliver messages. Student Council officers enjoy a birthday party given in honor of Hope Jackson.

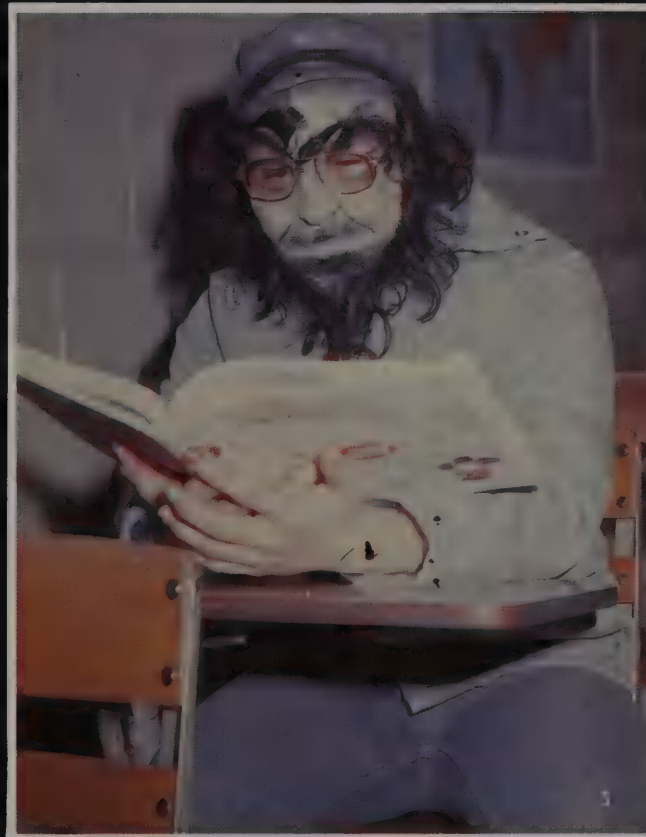

1. Although Halston is probably safe, Robert Dewberry seems pretty proud of a bathrobe he produced in Home-making. 2. Junior Kim Cook exhibits a spirited jump at a morning pep rally. 3. Senior Mike Smith takes a Gatorade break as he readies himself to carry on the struggle against an opposing team. 4. Junior James Carhart puts his welding skills to use in building a hay roll for AG class. 5. Costume Day, which was held on Halloween, promoted enthusiasm in Clifton Mitchum, as he discovers wearing a mask can provide a change of pace in the day's activities.

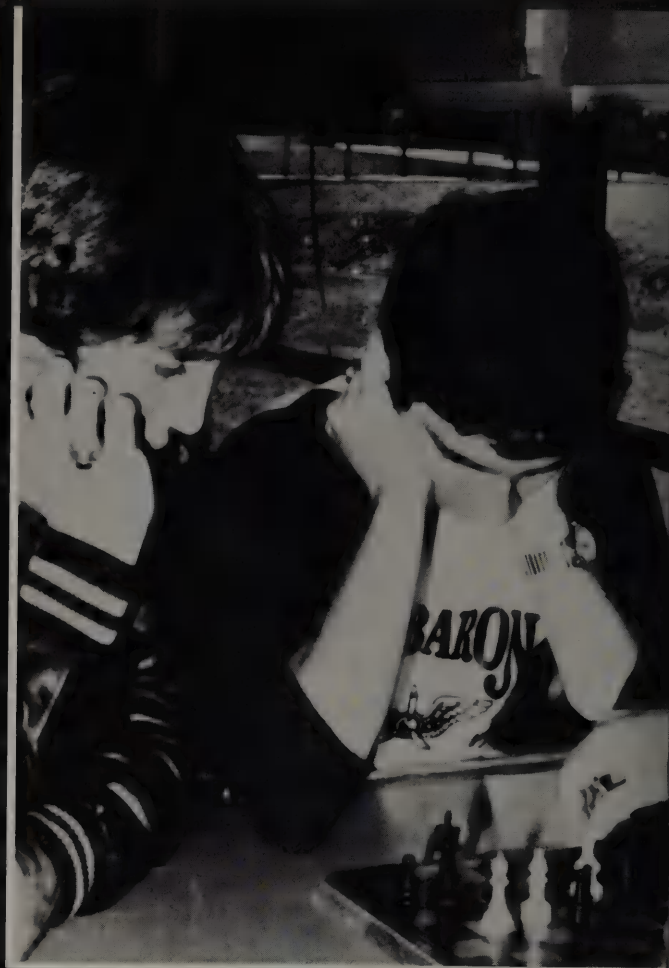

Anticipation mounted as the year began to unfold. A disappointing football season caused a few to give up the fight, but there were those who knew that athletics is just one part of school life and they tied a knot at the end of the rope and they hung on, because they were . . .

Many revisions and changes were seen that gave old activities new life. The changes caused interest. The interest caused involvement, and the involvement caused enthusiasm. The enthusiasm was a nice change of pace and students began to quit taking themselves so seriously and relax enough to have a good time. But there was something deeper than what appeared on the outside. Pride was beginning to show and the students continued . . .

Variety Seen in Pep Rallies

Varsity cheerleaders worked hard to boost Hornet morale during regularly scheduled Friday morning pep rallies. The band, Stingerettes, and spirit team also did their part to spark interest. Variety was seen in this year's pep rallies as cheerleaders used skits and class contests to raise spirit, as well as a faculty contest in which Coach John Kennedy received the first prize — a pie in the face. Other events included the appearance of the "Rockwall Yellowjacket cheerleaders," the Homecoming bonfire pep rally, and skits with costumes.

At right, Senior cheerleader Kathryn Skelton portrays a medieval cheerleader in the skit, "Spirit Through the Ages."

Varsity football players Richard Knighton, Pat Dyer and Mike Smith join in at a pep rally as they ponder about the game to come.

Seniors Julie Mathes, Susan Anderson, and Althea Connor participate in a contest during the "Roll Up the Bears" pep rally.

Sophomore Staci Sparks twirls to "Hot Stuff" at a regularly scheduled 4th period pep rally.

Homecoming Undergoes Changes

Traditional activities along with new additions blended together to make Homecoming '80 a success. During Spirit Week each class chose a type of clothing to be worn each school day.

New to the agenda was the giving away of mums. Students were encouraged to shake hands with each other, not knowing which five students or staff members were holders of mums. The first student to shake hands with a "holder" won the free mum.

Thursday night fans rallied around a bonfire as the cheerleaders led yells and chants in support of the Hornets. Senior band members then kept their traditional all-night vigil of marching the spirit torch around the courthouse.

Despite earlier rain, the parade went off smoothly, consisting of a record 60 units. The '80 parade saw the reappearance of floats with a slight alteration: mini-floats. These floats were built on golf carts, wheelbarrows, wagons, carts or small pickups. The Senior float received a well-deserved first place. In place of the usual Homecoming pep rally on Hornet Circle, a regularly scheduled 4th period rally was held.

The Queen coronation underwent some changes as four girls were honored during the pre-game ceremony. Senior Laurie Woods was named queen; Jackie Campion, junior princess; Julie Stelter, sophomore duchess; and Anna Bien, freshman duchess. These girls were elected by the student body from a field of 23 nominees.

Despite a loss to Madison, students thoroughly enjoyed the Homecoming dance at the HCJC Sub where Dave Goldman was the DJ.

Jeff Childress guides the art float on its way down the parade route.

Sophomore Willie Hadnot takes his first (and only) harp lesson during an assembly by a harp trio.

Present at every pep rally, the Stingerettes perform a skit for the student body.

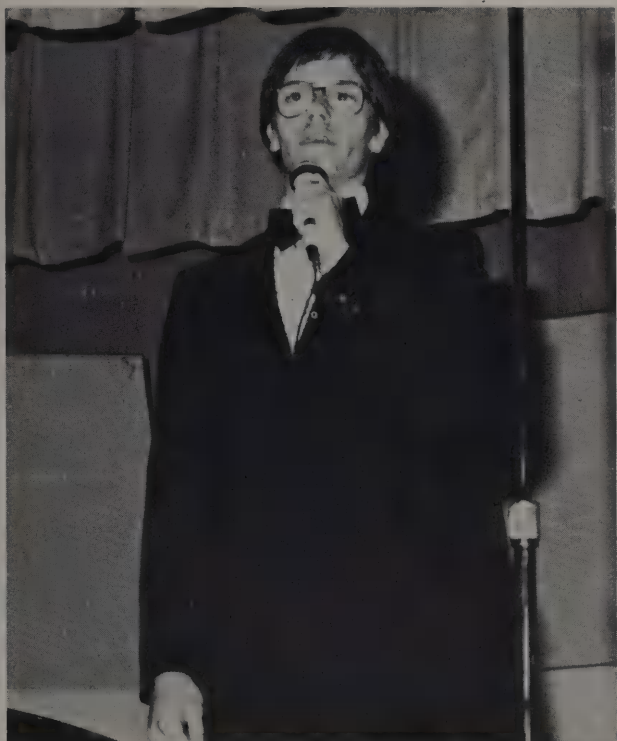

Assemblies Break Routine

Students enjoyed many assemblies this year that entertained them and also interrupted the usual routine of classes. These included traditional gatherings such as pep rallies, book reviews sponsored by the Library Club, choir concerts and the election speeches for Student Council offices. Fresh additions included a concert by the rock group "Freefare," a Student Council voter awareness program, a police department program on self defense, and the Yearbook staff's slide show and sales promotion presentation.

School favorites were presented to the student body during the Second Annual Favorites assembly. These students were nominated and elected by the entire student body and respective classes the week before the assembly. Certificates were presented to nominees and the winners in all nine categories.

Waymond Warren, a drama student, recites "Jest 'fore Christmas" for students during the Christmas assembly.

Dennis Blaylock entertains students with "Three Times a Lady" during the choir concert.

Pam Welch (Princess Leia) and Edward Royall (R2D2) wait for their cues in the Star Wars skit during the Freefare concert.

Kaye Maxey "jams down" before the student body during the "Music Through the Ages" assembly.

Senior Tim Huffman does his version of a hula girl in the skit, "Grass Skirt."

Students Star in Band Follies

The 31st Annual Band Follies proved to be a smash hit as audiences filled the auditorium for the various day and two night shows. The "A" band opened the shows with several patriotic selections followed by the traditional "Civil War Fantasy." AHS students then showed their many talents as they entertained through comedy, instrumental, vocal, and dance acts.

Mr. Wayne Mackley of the Chamber of Commerce served as master of ceremonies for the Follies.

Juniors Beverly Baker and Chelli Hargrove shoot it out in the skit "Cow Patti" during a morning show.

Majorettes Ginger Holiman and Suzy Glass entertain the audience with a dance routine to "Dallas."

Mr. Charles Sanders portrays J.O.'s baby in the POTH band comedy, "Who Shot J.O.?"

One of the space people (Cheryl Stogner) and Grandpa (Tim Huffman) practice their lines before going on stage.

Drama Presents 'Stomp Hallor'

Drama students of Mrs. Agatha Warren combined talent and hard work to present "Stomp Hallor Galactica," a hillbilly comedy with a feud, space invasion, neurotic senator, and Grandma's Cure-All. The play was well received by the student body which delights in the annual drama productions. A night show for the public was also provided.

In addition, drama students presented several mimes during the Christmas choir concert.

Sophomores Darlene Green and Nieves Rodriguez perform during the Christmas choir concert in the mime "The Gift."

Ocea (Paul Gardenhire) discusses events with Gooley (Dennis Blaylock), as Boca (Mary Stevens) looks on.

Gabriellie (Hope Jackson) explains to Aurelia (Leslie Wofford) about her birds and imaginary friends.

One-Act Play Wins Zone

The drama department's one-act play went to zone contest in April and captured top honors. "The Madwoman of Chaillot," under the capable direction of Mrs. Agatha Warren, was judged best one-act play and six students were recognized for superior performances.

Leslie Wofford was designated Best Actress and Michael Larue was Best Actor. Named to the All-Star Cast were Hope Jackson, Cindi Daugherty and Charlie Jackson while Janice Koehler received honorable mention.

In district competition, the cast and crew again gave an excellent performance and were selected as alternate play.

Leslie Wofford was named to the All-Star District Cast while Lynise Woods, Charlie Jackson, and Janice Koehler were chosen honorable mention.

Before the play, crew member Mary Whitman helps Cindi Daugherty with her makeup.

Speaking with French accents, the three prospectors (Charlie Jackson, Wade McIntyre, and Michael Larue) debate oil puddles under Aurelia's house.

Freshman Jennifer Sorrell participates in Music Dress Up Day by dressing as Janis Joplin.

Music Scene Disrupts Routine

A new Student Council innovation to liven up the school year was the idea of Music Dress Up Day. All students were asked to dress to represent their favorite kind of music.

Examples included punk rock (safety pin earrings and punk glasses), disco (glitter and satin pants), and country western (hats and belt buckles), just to name a few.

Participation rate was high as many students could be seen strolling the halls dressed in garbage bags, disco outfits, boots and bandannas.

Senior Corinna Wheeler shows her taste for country music as she studies her notes.

Students enjoy fellowship with each other in addition to dancing. Cookies and punch were served.

Rachel Brown and her date seem to be enjoying the sounds of D.J. Dave Goldman.

The muscle behind the construction of the prom, Mr. Gerald Woods puts the finishing touches on one of the gazebos.

Sebastian Robinson and Tonya Sims arrive at the prom, ready for a night of dancing and picture taking.

Juniors Honor Seniors

The HCJC SUB was the scene of the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom, held on May 1. Interested juniors worked overtime to transform the ballroom into an "Evening in Paradise," the chosen theme. Students and their dates were greeted by the junior ushers as they stepped onto a wooden bridge that carried them into the ballroom.

Brandy sniffers were given to all students as souvenirs of the prom. Refreshments included punch, cookies, finger sandwiches, sausage balls and cheese balls.

D.J. Dave Goldman provided the music for the night.

At top, Patti Moore and Dawn Yancey arrange centerpieces on a table in preparation for the prom.

Senior Gina Vaughn and her date, Robert Mills enjoy a slow dance for a change of pace.

The department award for world history goes to a smiling James Graham.

Achievements Noted at Last Assembly

Mr. Tom Whitman directed the annual Awards Assembly as many students received certificates, medals, and plaques rewarding them for superior achievement in various areas. Categories included academic and vocational departments, UIL contests, athletics, and extracurricular activities. Certificates were handed out by Mr. James Stacks, representing the school board, and new Student Council officers, who were also installed and awarded pins during the assembly.

Martha Stevens shows her delight on being named Highest Ranking Sophomore Girl.

Senior Deborah Freeman is congratulated by incoming Student Body President Stacy Smith as she receives the world literature award.

Performing in the Spanish version of "Hansel and Gretel" allows Robert Lively and Becky Martindale a chance to break the monotony of class.

Senior Robin Whitt Garnish prepares to swing a pinata as another art student takes her turn.

Class Projects Stir Interest

Teachers in many classes gave students a break from the usual notes, homework, and tests. Students enjoyed special activities that restored their interest in class subjects. French classes took time out from their studies to taste French delicacies. Senior English classes got a chance to test their acting talents as the stories, "Beowulf" and "Canterbury Tales" were portrayed. Art classes made Christmas pinatas along with numerous other art projects. Students also participated in an art show. Spanish classes had an active year as students acted out plays, sang songs and made various decorations.

Bravely gathered around a table to sample snails and other delicacies are French students Craig Hawkins, David Boles, and Jimmy Mills.

Sophomore Mario Davis places his painting on the wall to be viewed by visitors to the first art show.

Art Show Well Received

Students worked hard during the semester in Mrs. Frances-Lee Galey's art classes to develop their talents. An art show in May was the climax of the art year as students entered their own "masterpieces" in the show to be judged. Blue, red and white ribbons were awarded in each of nine categories. The categories included pen and ink, charcoal, pastel, watercolor and lettering. Rhona Norris, an East Texas State University graduate student, judged the show and awarded the ribbons. Sophomore Lynise Woods won Best of Show and other blue ribbon winners were Jason Smith, Darrell Miniffee, Lee Ann Lynch, Robin Garnish, Kevin Love, Patti Moore, Dawn Yancey, Debbie Smith, Jodie McGaha, Sheila Thompson, Sandie Holder, James McGee, Lori Labosky, and Karen Darlington.

Participation and turn out for the show was so good that it was hoped the art show would become an annual event.

Art instructor Mrs. Frances-Lee Galey pours punch for students Lee Ann Lynch and Dina Lynch before the show begins.

Sophomore Sandie Holder inspects her drawing that was judged worthy of a first place ribbon.

The Senior Picnic gives Lakita Hadnot and Demetra Barker a chance to show off their dance moves to Edward Royall.

Keith Tull and Tom Hardin relax and enjoy their meal on the hood of a truck before joining the activities.

Seniors Enjoy Outdoors

This year's Senior Picnic was again held after the Awards Assembly. Seniors and Junior Ushers trekked out to R. H. Lee Park to enjoy hamburgers, chips, cookies, and Cokes.

Despite a cloudy day and cold water, seniors showed no mercy as they threw classmates and sponsors into the lake after lunch. Frisbee and socializing also were popular activities before a large group left for a special Senior Night at Six Flags Over Texas.

Serving his shift as chef, Coach John Kennedy grills hamburgers for hungry Seniors.

Graduation Climaxes Year

Baccalaureate services were held on May 24 at the First Baptist Church. Reverend Merle E. Jones of the Church of the Living God served as the guest speaker, addressing the graduates on walking the narrow road of life.

May 25 was the long-awaited day for seniors. Due to bad weather, a change of location was designated. The class of 170 proud seniors gathered at the HCJC Men's Gym for Commencement exercises. After speeches and the announcing of awards, Mr. Tom Whitman, principal, presented the class for graduation. Then, with an overflow crowd present, the Class of '81 received their diplomas from Mr. James Stacks, School Board president.

Elated, dry-eyed graduates Leigh Ann Harville and Robert Key rejoice at the end of their four long years at AHS.

A joyful Cedric Ingram receives congratulations from family and friends after the graduation exercises.

Leah Trammell experiences a tearful moment as David Moore looks forward to his own graduation.

Advanced Studies Encouraged

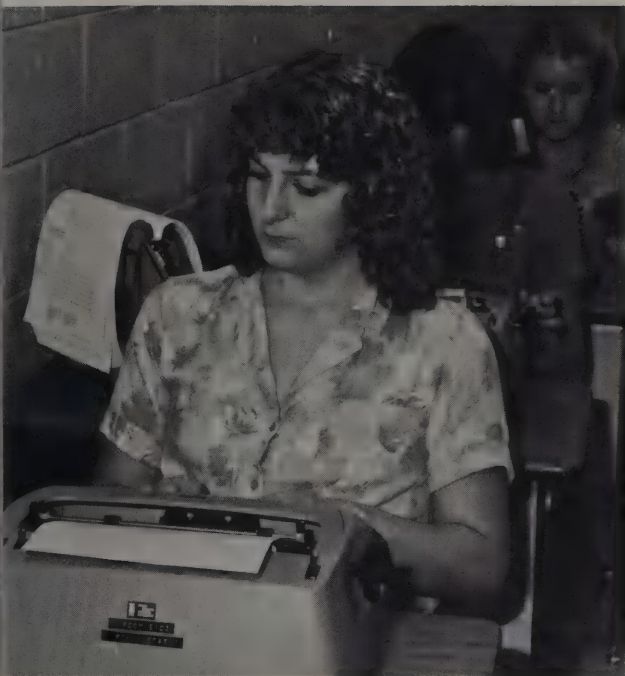

Students were offered many choices of math classes. Fundamentals of Math stressed basic mathematics while Algebra I and II and Geometry offered advanced study in the math field.

The Science department included Physical Science, Biology I and II, Physics, Anatomy and Physiology, and Chemistry. Students were required to have two years of both Science and Mathematics to graduate.

Sophomore Mark Bynum carefully avoids working on his worm until the last minute of class.

Trying to keep her mistakes down, Lori Labosky works on getting more words per minute.

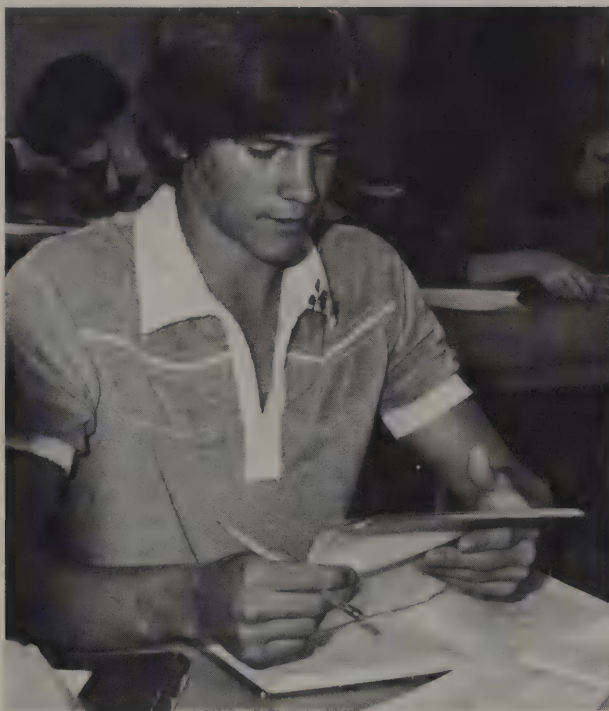

Business Law Added

A wide variety of business courses was offered to students wishing to obtain office skills; giving students a background for business related jobs.

New courses offered were Business Law I and II, in which students examined court cases, visited a courtroom, and heard guest speakers. Math of Consumer Economics was also new emphasizing the calculation of interest and understanding insurance and company prices.

Pat Dyer, winner of the Typing II award, practices business letter writing.

Students Participate in Course Activities

Students at AHS were required to take both English and Social Studies throughout their high school years.

In the English department, Honors English replaced the Topic English courses. Grammar, literature, and composition were the main topics of discussion. Composing research papers were major projects in junior and senior English classes.

A variety of Social Studies courses was offered this year. The required senior Government course was reduced to one semester with a second semester choice of American Free Enterprise, Advanced Texas Studies or Advanced Social Problems. Other social studies offerings included World History, American History and World Geography.

Students Michael McDonald, Pam Crippen, and Bobby Henry do Mrs. Mary Ann Tyner's make-up work in the hall.

Talented, Gifted Courses Added

For the first time, classes for gifted and talented students were offered to qualified students. Preliminary tests were given to identify students and about 25 sophomores were then scheduled into TAG English and Math courses.

Students in Talented and Gifted courses did traditional work plus added projects. English classes kept journals, wrote news letters, and heard several guest speakers for career opportunities. In math, students participated in a more in-depth study of Geometry and learned innovative concepts of the subject.

Next year, juniors will have the opportunity to participate in the TAG program, and in two years, it will be extended to include all grades.

Jerry Cox, Cindi Daugherty, Stacy Sparks, Martha Stevens, and Waymond Warren participate in both English and Geometry Talented and Gifted courses.

Beautiful embroidery artworks are being created by freshman Andre Ingram and junior Regina Edwards in Ms. Pam Hudnall's Crafts I class.

Crafts Promote Creativity

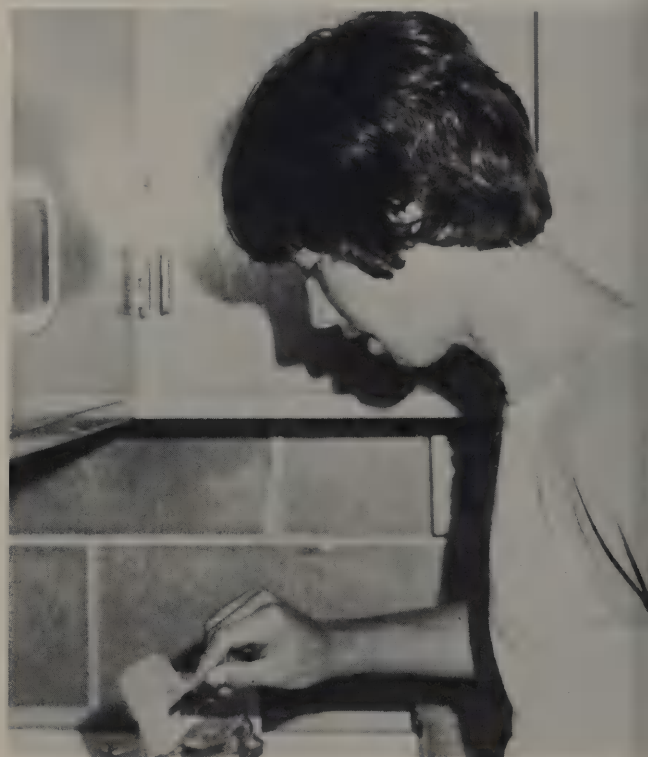

Sixteen students performed projects of macrame, crochet, hook rugs, needlepoint and knitting in the newly formed Crafts I class. Each student was required to complete a certain number of projects depending on their difficulty. "The purpose behind the class," related Ms. Pam Hudnall, "is to promote creativity and a sense of satisfaction within each student."

Home and Family Living stressed the study of child care, budgeting and marriage problems.

An extension of Homemaking, Consumer Education covered income tax computation, and areas of buying which included such aspects as price comparison.

Homemaking I and II taught students general home skills in home management, food preparation, child development and clothing production.

Arts Inspire Individuality

The music department included three bands: varsity, freshman and stage band. Musicians participated in various parades, concerts and the annual Band Follies. "This was a fantastic year for our varsity band" related director Mr. John Glover, "mostly because we advanced to state in our UIL marching contest."

The 50 voices of the Select Choir were chosen as a result of Spring tryouts. Many activities abounded during the year, including several concerts and the annual UIL contests. Several students were named to Region and Area choir.

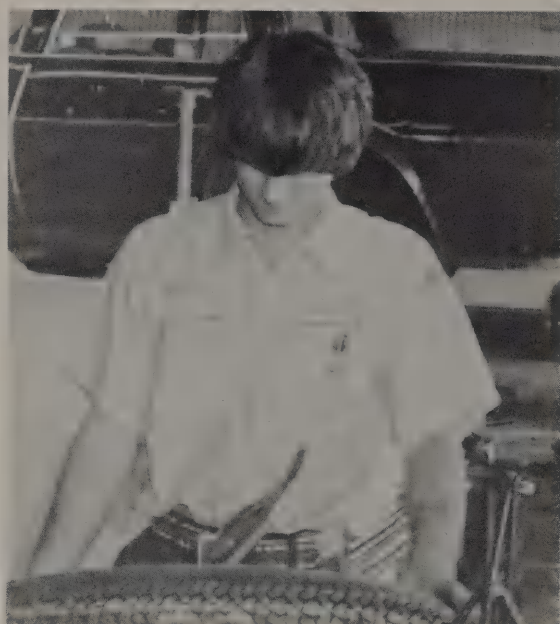

Stage makeup, set designing, and performing were all parts of the drama department. Several productions were presented during the year for the school.

Art classes were offered at several levels. Pencil, ink, and tempera were several of the projects given to the students.

Offense Improves in Second Game

After a disappointing 13-0 loss to Kilgore, Head Coach Rommie Maxey reflected, "the defense was great, holding the Bulldogs to 100 yards gained." He cited Tracy Adair, Joel Stukas, and Donald Thomas as standouts. Five fumbles and three interceptions created insurmountable problems for the Hornet offense, resulting in a scoreless evening.

In their second game of the season an improved offense led Sulphur Springs in first downs and total yards gained but was unable to contain the Wildcats on the scoreboard. Quarterback Mike Nieman led with eleven carries for 120 yards, including two touchdowns. In the second quarter he scored on a 46 yard run, and Duke Bedsole's extra point evened the score 7-7. Nieman scored again in the fourth period, and a two-point conversion set the score at 15-28. From there, Sulphur Springs extended their lead with one final touchdown to take a 34-15 victory.

Late in the school year, Sulphur Springs was found to have an ineligible player and was forced to forfeit the season, giving Athens another win.

A spiral pass from quarterback Mike Nieman was seized by Tracy Adair (22) in the Sulphur Springs game. The Hornets completed ten passes for 122 yards against the Wildcats.

Senior Cedric Ingram (12) scampers away from an opponent as he tries to reach the goal line.

Hornet Defense Remains Strong

At Rockwall, the Hornet defense held magnificently in the first half, but the highly regarded Yellowjackets came alive in the second half to take a lopsided 33-6 decision.

Rockwall had made only five first downs and gained 91 yards and 6 points by the half.

The second half was a different story. The Jack-ets scored three TD's in the third period for a 33-0 lead. Athens retaliated with a lone six-pointer in the last quarter when sophomore quarterback Brian Owens handed off to Mike Nieman, playing running back, for a 27-yard run to the end zone.

Palestine came out ahead in a lopsided 27-0 win which could have been worse without a concentrated Hornet defense.

The offense, behind sophomore QB Brian Owens, was held to only seven first downs and 44 total yards while the Wildcats amassed 26 first downs and 447 yards. Strong defensive play by Donald Thomas, Deany Basher, James Cotten, Cliff Foster, Tracy Adair, Jimmy Mills, Mike Nieman, and Scott Bateman kept the Cats from an even higher score.

kick-off.

First Win Captured

A fired-up Hornet squad produced their first win, defeating the highly touted Gladewater Bears 14-6 in the fifth non-district game of the season.

Gladewater struck in the first quarter on a 42-yard footrace to the end zone. The PAT was wide. Athens finally got untracked as the defense came through with a fumble recovery by senior guard Donald Thomas. The Hornets then unleashed Arthur Cumby who scampered 6 yards for the score. Duke Bedsole's kick was good, giving the Hornets a 7-6 edge. Late in the second quarter, Athens gained possession when senior Robin Smith picked up a Bear fumble and seconds later a halfback pass from Cumby was snared by Cedric Ingram in the end zone. Bedsole's kick lengthened the Hornet lead to 14-6, which held till the final buzzer.

In the second half a defensive battle raged as both teams were held to low yardage and no scores.

The year's first district game went to the hard-hitting Corsicana Tigers. "A super team," in the words of AHS Coach Rommie Maxey, the Tigers were state ranked and justifiably so. But the Hornets were not subdued without a fight. Donald Thomas, Cliff Foster, Tracy Adair, Mike Nieman, Tony Baccharini and other Hornets fought hard against the odds.

The brightest spot for Athens fans was cheering as Arthur Cumby ran a 93-yard punt return in for a second quarter touchdown. Cumby scored again in the fourth quarter, culminating a 42-yard drive. Duke Bedsole kicked both PATS.

The Tigers hit paydirt for seven TD's and a safety, accumulating 496 total yards to 213 for Athens.

Long Runs Threaten Dragons

Cheered by a large homecoming crowd, the Hornets stayed with Dallas Madison in the first half before being trounced in the second.

The Trojans scored twice in the opening quarter. Athens' only touchdown came after a thrilling 29-yard drive in the second period. Just minutes later a Hornet field goal attempt failed at the 15, closing out the half at 14-7. In the second half the Trojans scored six more times to take a lopsided 54-7 victory.

Athens lost a heartbreaker to Seagoville giving the Dragons their first district win.

Seagoville scored once in the first quarter followed by an electrifying 24-yard run by Gary Cumby to give the Hornets a 7-6 lead early in the second period. More than half of the second quarter was gone, and Seagoville made a TD and a two-point conversion to go ahead 14-7. Darryl Minifee retaliated with a spectacular 95-yard kick-off return, and the half ended at 14-14.

Two drives were killed in the third, but Arthur Cumby finally broke loose for another spinetingling 85-yard run to put the Hornets ahead 21-14.

Unfortunately, the Dragons were still alive and managed another TD immediately to retie the game.

The seesaw contest was finally decided with only seconds left as the Dragons scored one more six-pointer, leaving the Hornets on the short end of a 27-21 score.

Coach John Kennedy discusses game strategy with Tracy Adair (22). Mr. Kennedy emphasizes his point with a slight pinch on Tracy's stomach.

Garry Cumby (24) sprints downfield toward the end zone. The Hornets amassed 241 yards but were unable to keep up with the Trojans.

Tigers Surrender District Win

The Hornets overcame Dallas Lincoln scoring 21 points in the first half and hanging on despite a concentrated effort by the Tigers.

A 79-yard drive got the Hornets on the board in the first quarter, and a Tiger TD and failed conversion left Athens a slim 7-6 lead. Cedric Ingram scored in the second, and almost immediately Deany Basher recovered a fumble, setting up a 24-yard drive to paydirt for the Hornets. The Tigers managed two more TD's, but strong defensive play when it counted the most enabled the Hornets to hold on to an important 21-18 district win.

Despite outstanding efforts by Donald Thomas, Mike Nieman and others, Ennis brought the Hornets to their knees with a 27-6 win. The Lions took a 17-0 lead in the first half and increased it to 27-0 in the third quarter.

An interception by Nieman set up the Hornets lone TD by Gary Cumby, ending the game and the season.

Cumby, Jeff West, Coach Omega Dunnington, (3rd row) Will Velvin, Todd Douglas, Bo Harris, Jim Nieman, Eric Eldredge, Robert Eckelberg, and Terry Scott.

JV players struggled through a losing battle, walking away with a no-win season.

In spite of a determined spirit and all-out effort, opponents of the new district proved too much.

Hornets

Boast

Success

The 1980-81 basketball season was one of the most successful seasons for the Hornets in the past several years. The Hornets recovered their first winning season in 3 years with a 17-14 record. The team was competitive to the very end. The Hornets found themselves in a very tough District 6 for the first time, and after going 0-5 the first half of zone play, they came back with a 3-2 zone record and in the race for the 2nd half zone Championship until the final game.

The Hornets began their campaign with an impressive win over rival Palestine 47-35. Utilizing a strong defense the Hornets held the Wildcats to their lowest point total for the entire season. The Hornets were led by the rebounding of Kenneth Givens and the play-making of Johnny Cofer. Coach Ken Holley related, "The Hornets received strong bench support from Michael Hadnot and Anthony Cook."

A second game against the Palestine Wildcats ended in a 76-62 loss for the Hornets. The 20 high points were attained by Cumby.

The following week, the Hornets recorded one of their most exciting wins of the season with a last second victory over Brownsboro, 54-52. The game was highlighted by Cedric Henry's game winning shot at the buzzer. Henry also led the Hornets in scoring with 14 pts.

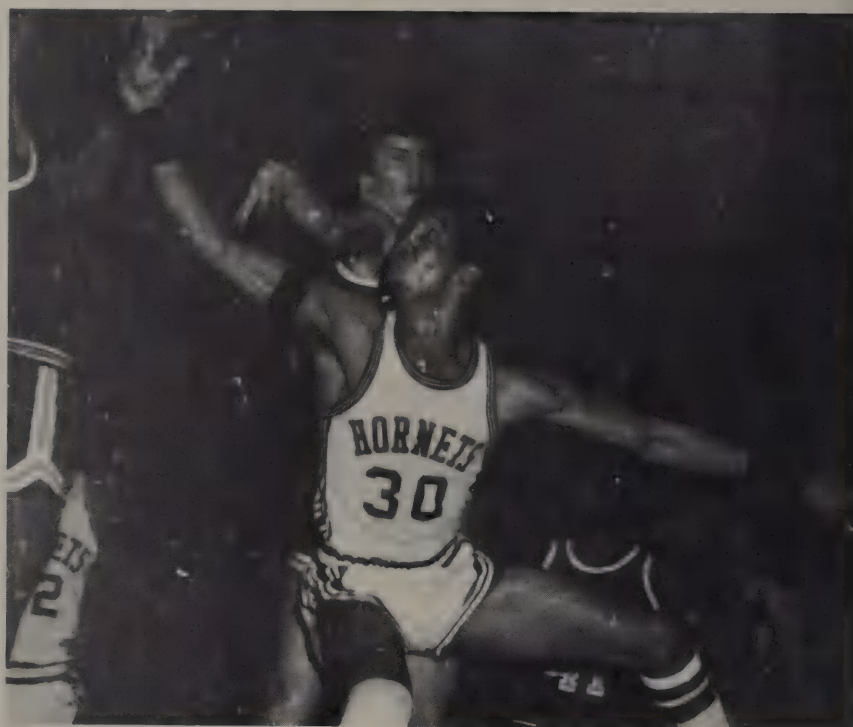

Two Make Tournament Team

After back to back wins over the Terrell Tigers and the Fairfield Eagles, with Greg Sanders highpointing in each, the Hornets opened the Athens Invitational Tournament with an impressive win over the Lindale Eagles 84-61 which proved to be the most points the Hornets scored the entire season. The Hornets then defeated Robert E. Lee J.V. team which set them for the championship game with the Palestine Wildcats which ended in a 67-62 defeat. Johnny Cofer and Gary Cumby were selected to the all tournament team.

Following a win over Palestine Westwood, the Hornets participated in the Terrell tournament where they were defeated by Terrell and Seagoville but beat McKinney. The following Tuesday the Hornets defeated the Tigers 65-46. The Hornets closed the first half of the season with a defeat by Van but came back to win the Consolation trophy by defeating Palestine Westwood and Winona. The Hornets were led by Mike Nieman and Johnny Cofer.

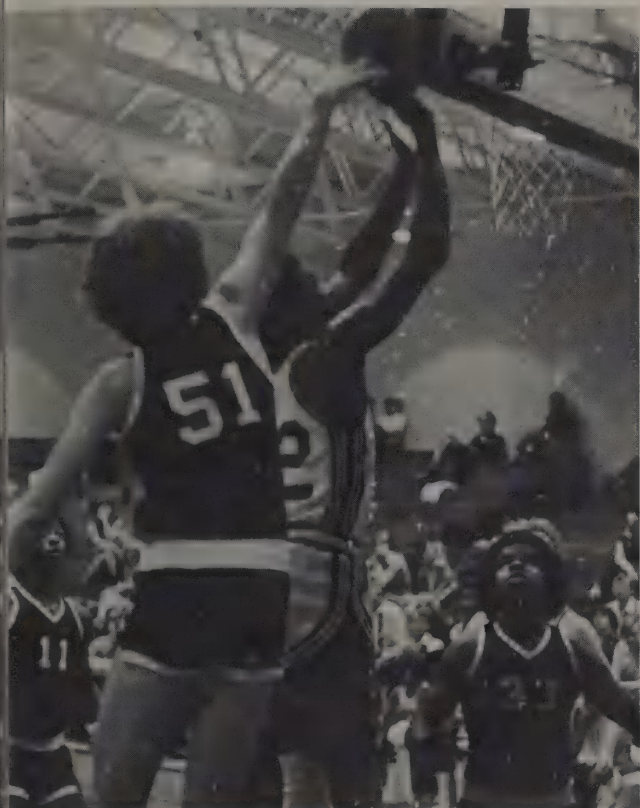

The Hornets returned to action after the Christmas break with wins over Van, Fairfield and Palestine Westwood. The Palestine West game saw the lowest points of Palestine Westwood of only 34 points.

Senior Mike Nieman (40) is preparing a way to shoot for a basket in the game against Lindale in which the Hornets had the most points in the season.

Greg Sanders (30) thrusts himself off the floor to gain two points on the scoreboard.

As he leaves the floor, Cedric Henry (22) reaches for two points for the Hornet team.

Closely guarded Greg Sanders out-jumped the defense to tip the ball to the Hornets.

Lincoln Forfeits Game to Hornets

The Hornets began zone competition after fashioning an impressive 14-7 non-district record. However, the Hornets went into a mid-season slump and dropped their first five zone games against Corsicana, Dallas Madison, Seagoville, Dallas Lincoln, and Ennis.

After trailing as many as 18 pts. in the Dallas Lincoln game, the Hornets almost made a miraculous comeback by scoring 25 pts. in the final quarter to pull within 2 pts. The comeback was led by sophomore Darrell Minifee and Senior Johnny Cofer.

The Hornets began the 2nd half of their zone competition with an exciting overtime win over the first half zone co-champs, Corsicana 52-50. The game was highlighted by a super performance from Kenneth Givens who scored 19 pts. and had 14 rebounds. The Hornets won the game in overtime with a last second shot by Givens. He also scored 6 pts. in overtime, to secure the win for the Hornets, the following Friday, the team met Dallas Madison, and lost 70-66. The Hornets came back with a tough win over Seagoville, 54-51. The Hornets then met Dallas Lincoln for the most bizarre game in Hornet basketball history. After trailing by as many as 10 pts., the Hornets ended up winning the game by forfeit in the second quarter when the Lincoln Coach refused to leave the gym after being ejected from the game.

The Hornets entered the final game of the season against the Ennis Lions with a chance to tie for the second half zone championship. However, their hopes were destroyed by one of their worst defeats of the year, 72-61.

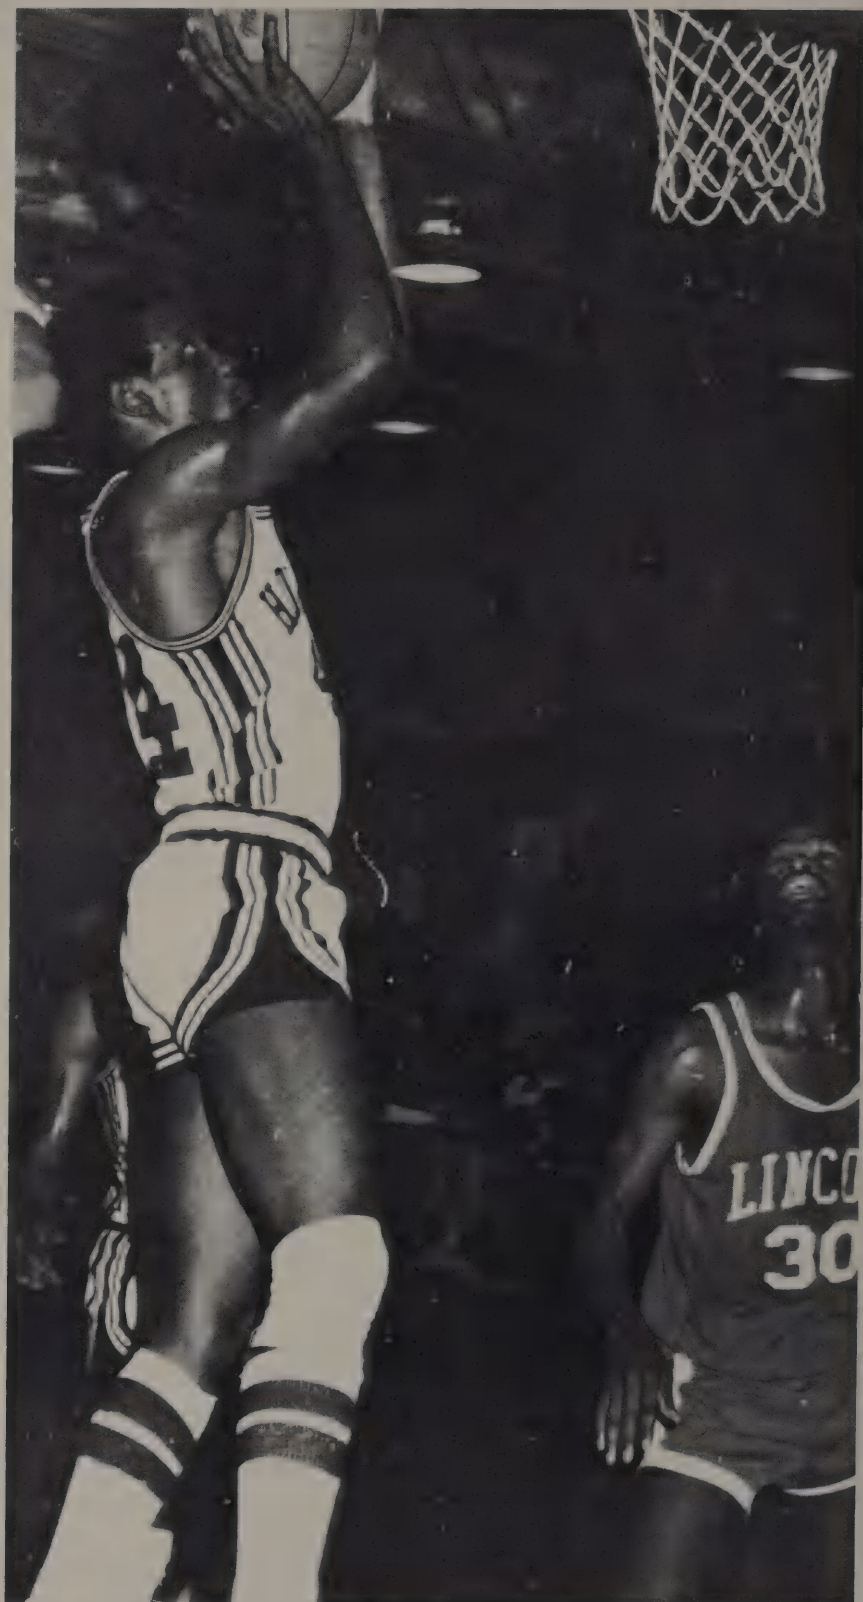

A hand fighting, never-give-up team throughout the year, the Hornets were led by seniors Johnny Cofer, Kenneth Givens, Mike Nieman and Cedric Henry.

Givens Named to All-Zone

Kenneth Givens was the team's leading rebounder and most consistent performer throughout the year, being selected to the first team all-zone team and, was also being Athens' Most Valuable Player. Johnny Cofer was the team's assist leader and second leading scorer and was an honorable mention selection for All-Zone.

Junior Garry Cumby was selected to the second team All Zone team. He was the team's leading scorer, averaging more than 11 pts. per game for the yr.

The Hornets also received steady performances from juniors Michael Hadnot and Anthony Cook. Darrell Miniffee, the only sophomore on the team, was the Hornets' sixth man, who also thrilled the fans with his hustling style of play.

Hornets Conquer Opener

The Hornets got off to a good start in their season opener against the Gladewater Bears during the East Texas High School Tournament. Mike Nieman pitched the first four and two-thirds innings in which he struck out three. Butch Slaughter relieved Nieman with one strike out and then came up with the win. Hitters for the evening were Tracy Adair, Tony Baccarini, Terry Scott and Manuel Marquez who all contributed to the 4-2 win. This placed them in the second round against Marshall. Tom Hardin and Slaughter pitched to help with the lead. Marshall took over in the sixth. Coach Omega Dunnington commented, "The Hornets played an excellent defense." They had two double plays, one pick-off play, and a good throw-in from the outfield by Hardin.

Another win was picked up against the Palestine Wildcats, 7-5. Nieman started, striking out five in three innings; Hardin came in and picked up his first win of the season. Second baseman Tracy Adair contributed a home run, Marquez an RBI single, and Tom Hardin then sacrificed Joel Stukas and Baccarini home. In the sixth, Baccarini reached home on Stukas' single. Nieman then hit a two-run homer followed by Slaughter's solo shot over the center fence. This brought the Hornet record to 3-1.

The Hornets were overcome by the Corsicana Tigers 19-2 in the Chapel Hill tournament. Nieman added a triple, Stukas a double, and Donald Benton, Pat Dyer, and Terry Scott each had a single. The Hornets got 13 runs from 15 hits in the fourth.

Cliff Foster carefully watches the ball pass by him while he anxiously awaits the referee's call.

Hardin Ups Season to 5-0

Two more wins were placed on the board against Chapel Hill and Sulphur Springs. Tom Hardin went eight and one-third innings in the Sulphur Springs game and Mike Nieman picked up his third save of the season. They fell behind 5-0 in the first, added one run in the second, didn't score again until the fifth, and then tied it up in the seventh. The next three runs in the tenth brought the Hornets a win.

The Hornets added another win against the Jacksonville Indians, 10-4. Hardin upped his season to 5-0. He had eight strike outs and gave up two walks. In the second, Hardin had a three-run homer and first baseman Tony Baccarini had a two-run homer followed by Tracy Adair and Terry Scott with singles. In the third, Brian Mackley had a walk, Cliff Foster singled Mackley to second, and Joel Stukas singled Mackley home. Manuel Marquez had an RBI sacrifice and Tracy Adair started the fourth off with a single. He and Terry Scott singled in by Mike Nieman. In the sixth, Stukas was injured on a play at first and was out the season.

The Hornets lost their district games to Corsicana, Seagoville, and Ennis and won their district games against Dallas Madison and Lincoln both times.

Mike Nieman reels the ball to the batter while Tracy Adair onlooks the pitch.

Squad Exudes Spirit

Enthusiastic cheerleaders drummed up spirit in optimistic Hornet fans during pep rallies and football games as well as other spirit raising events. The eight cheerleaders and Hornet mascot (3) aroused excitement among the student body, giving them the needed inspiration to support the various Hornet teams throughout the year. The squad also decorated football players' rooms and treated them to cakes at Homecoming.

During summer camp at SMU, AHS cheerleaders won six outstanding awards for spirit, execution, coordination and general ability.

Ms. Pam Hudnall was cheerleader sponsor.

A two-year member of ICT, Leslie won several state honors on her drafting projects. She also served as treasurer of her freshman class.

Mike was an active member of FFA and Rodeo Club. He qualified for State finals in the bull riding division in both 1980 and 1981.

Students Favor Kim, Stoney

Students favored Kim Smith and Stoney Watkins with the title of Most Beautiful and Most Handsome.

Junior Kim Smith was a member of Young Life.

Senior Stoney Watkins was a Junior Usher chosen by the senior class.

Tammy, Joe Chosen Popular

Seniors Tammy Wylie and Joe Whatley were selected as Most Popular.

Tammy was a four-year member of the POTH Band in addition to serving as a junior usher. She was also active in VICA in which she was a homecoming nominee her junior year. Tammy was also named as a junior class favorite.

A three-year football player, Joe was chosen as a junior usher. He was also named as a junior class favorite. In addition, Joe was a member of the Library Club and served as president during his senior year, and participated in Young Life.

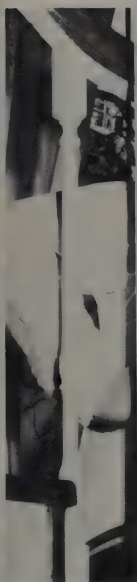

Laurie, Chuck Accept Titles

Laurie Woods and Chuck Isler were named by students as Most Courteous.

Laurie was a member of NHS and was also named as Most Courteous the past year. She was a varsity cheerleader for three years in addition to participating in the Select Choir for four years. Laurie served as a class officer two years including being elected president of her senior class. She was also a sophomore class favorite in addition to being named as Miss AHS.

Chuck, also a senior, moved to Athens last year from Houston. He was a member of Young Life.

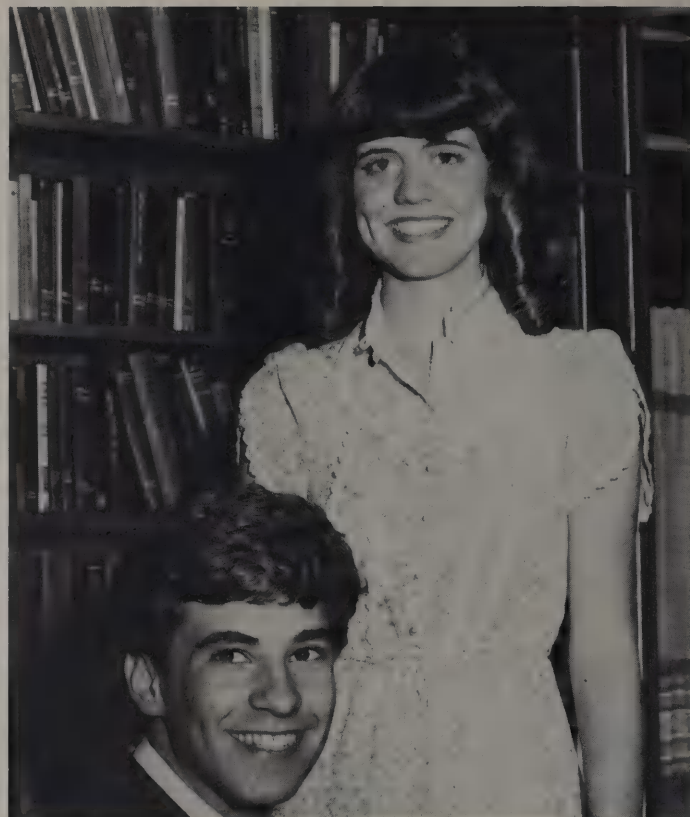

Students Recognize Lisa, Mike

Lisa Sheppard and Mike Nieman were chosen by students as Most Versatile.

Lisa was active in basketball for four years and a member of the newly formed volleyball team her senior year. In addition, Lisa was a member of

Junior Ushers Host, Serve

Ten juniors chosen by the faculty and the senior class served as Junior Ushers. Responsibilities of the five couples included acting as hosts and hostesses at the prom, as well as decorating prior to it. Junior Ushers also participated in senior activities such as the senior picnic for which they prepared the meal. They also attended and served at the Baccalaureate service and graduation ceremony.

Band Shows Excellence

The Pride of the Hornet Band superbly lived up to its name this year, performing with noted excellence. In November, the 137 member band went to marching contest in Mesquite, and came home as the first division winner. After numerous hours of hard work and practice, the band advanced to state contest in Austin. Bad weather brought unfavorable conditions as the AHS band performed. However, an exciting trip was enjoyed by all.

Band members traditionally carried out the favored Band Follies, which was, as usual, a tremendous success. Several concerts were presented by the band. The majorettes excelled in several contests, along with individual and group band members. Several advanced to the state competition in May.

Officers included Tammy Wylie, president; Carol McElhaney, vice president; Melissa Penney, secretary; Donna Jo Padgitt, treasurer; Suzy Glass, absentee secretary; Blaine Gould, historian; Cindy Head, reporter. Band director was Mr. John Glover, and assistant director was Mr. Relford Quattlebaum.

At the Lincoln football game in Dallas, the band promotes spirit during a tense moment.

Junior Terri Watson prepares to lead the Stingerettes in a "tie up the Tigers" routine.

Stingerettes Spark Spirit

The Stingerettes were a source of pride for AHS this year, delighting fans at pep rallies and football games with their polish and precision. Props were used to give an added flair to their brilliant performances.

Thirty-two Stingerettes attended camp at Kilgore Jr. College and came back with a first division trophy for dance novelty. Five girls were awarded medals.

Officers were Terri Watson, captain; Raetta Wilson, Sandra Cribbs, Tawna Loden, and Phebron Pool, lieutenants. Mrs. Mickie Brantley served as Stingerette sponsor.

The Stingerettes perform to the music of "Everything's Coming Up Roses" during half-time at the Palestine game.

Last minute preparations are made by freshman Melissa Sims as she gets ready to perform.

Spirit Team New This Year

An all new Spirit Team originated at AHS this year, branching off from the Stingerettes, and drawing interested students from the entire student body.

"These girls have showed an incredible amount of improvement since the beginning of school," noted Mrs. Mary Ann Tiner. "We hope the Spirit Team continues to grow and improve." Mrs. Jana Livingston assisted Mrs. Tyner as sponsor for this new and aspiring organization.

Officers were Theresa Rogers, and Tommie Whitman, 1st lieutenant. Leading the lines were Nan Barker and Joy Criner, while Kyla Hodges and Oleta Paul were managers of the Spirit Team.

Spirit Team members are required to come early to every football game, as illustrated here by Renee Polk and Melissa Sims.

Student Council officers for the year were Cindy Head, reporter; Hope Jackson, vice-president; Stephen Smith, parliamentarian; Demetra Barker, secretary; and Tammy Busch, president, (not pictured was) Gina Vaughn, treasurer.

Junior Debbie Courson and sophomore Laura Campion decorate the Student Council Christmas tree.

David Moore, Cliff Foster, Joe Whatley and Gina Vaughn place favorite ballots in the teachers' mailboxes.

Juniors Cyndi McCool and Dianne Soisson practice their election speeches as Hope Jackson listens attentively.

Student Council Emphasizes Involvement

The Student Council organized many new activities in an attempt to get students involved. "Meet-a-Hornet Day" was a new idea added to traditional activities of homecoming parade and dance, favorites assembly and dance, class elections and ID cards.

Money making projects included the movie, "The Muppet Movie" and the sale of Spirit Suckers.

Officers were Tammy Busch, president; Hope Jackson, vice president; Demetra Barker, secretary; Gina Vaughn, treasurer; Stephen Smith, parliamentarian; Cindy Head, reporter. Sponsors for Student Council were Trevanion Smith and Lisa Anderson.

Club Donates Long Hours

"To be more active and beneficial in our own community is a main goal of the Auto-Mechanics Chapter 532," responded Mr. Robert Montgomery, club sponsor. This chapter was a division of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America.

Besides working three hours a day on improving their mechanical techniques, several projects kept members active. The VICA club kept up the Henderson County Memorial Library Bookmobile, and developed many community efforts, such as fund raising for a needy family at Christmas.

Officers included Russell Bandy, president; Vance Fincher, treasurer; Mark Williams, parliamentarian; Jeff Watson, reporter; Curtis Walden, historian. In district competition, Russell Bandy received second place, while Vance Fincher captured a fourth place in a different field of contest.

Juniors Russell Bandy and Jeff Watson know that perfection is necessary in completing a mechanical project.

Choosing the correct tool can be a difficult task sometimes, as demonstrated here by Joey Holland and Tommy Little.

Students Find Fun in Projects

Members of Future Homemakers of America worked throughout the year in serving the community. At Christmas, students participated in decorating local nursing homes. At Halloween, they distributed candy to elementary students.

To make money, the FHA club sold cupcakes and lemonade to famished students and faculty. Mrs. Nancy Hickman, Mrs. Pam Hudnall, and Mrs. Helen Heggins served as sponsors.

Officers were Eva Thomas, president; Cedric Ingram, vice president; Nan Barker, secretary; Teresa Chilton, treasurer; Felicia Bowman, parliamentarian; and Darnetta Staples, chairman of decorating committee.

Library Club Sponsors Luncheons

The Library Club consisted of 21 members who assisted sponsors Mrs. Martha Vermillion and Mrs. Sherry Gross in keeping the school library organized and up-to-date.

Club members sponsored luncheons for AHS's first volleyball team and the school faculty. They continued their previous money making projects by presenting two book reviews at student assemblies.

Several club members attended a conference in Fort Worth to expand and develop library skills. Officers were Joe Whatley, president; Joe Elliott, vice president; Wade Park, treasurer; Mary Wright, historian; Robin Whitt, secretary; Wendy Whitehead, parliamentarian; Tony Watson, reporter.

Club Benefits Students

The Key Club, a division of Kiwanis International, made several contributions to the school. Members built the bonfire for homecoming, raised the flag at football games and purchased campus picnic tables for the benefit of students.

Sponsored by Mr. Tom Taylor, the members met every first and third Monday nights at the Ole' West Steakhouse.

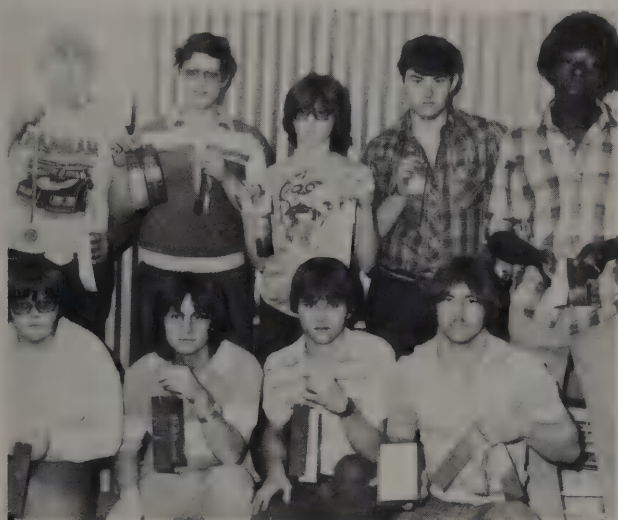

Officers were David Moore, president; Scott Bateman, vice president; Charlie Luna, secretary; and Kevin Kindred, treasurer.

Juniors Todd Douglas and David Moore solemnly raise the flag before a football game.

Freshman Hayden Jackson puts full force into another swing at the car bash.

VOCT Car Bash Fun for All

The Coordinated Vocational-Academic Education program provided AHS with the Vocational Opportunities Club of Texas for students with interests in automotive servicing, general mechanical skills, and small engine repair. Mr. William Chancellor sponsored this successful organization.

For fund raising, students sponsored a wash and wax car service for anyone interested. This year, VOCT members presented a car bash, in which students could pay to demolish a car.

Participants in the district contest were Todd Tolbert, Joe Elliott, David Gibbs, Hayden Jackson, and Ken Pike. Todd Tolbert was extremely successful in the state competition.

Officers were Rocky Richardson, president; Todd Tolbert, vice president; Kelly Dodd, treasurer; Ken Pike, secretary; Devon Treason, parliamentarian.

Members Learn Camping Skills

Camping was the main interest of members of the Outdoors Club. Trips were taken to Tyler State Park, "Camp Tyler," Cedar Creek and Fairfield State Park.

Composing the high school phone directory brought the club the funds they needed for their projects.

Mr. Jimmy Clancy, Mr. Gerald Wood, and Mr. Charles Sanders served as club sponsors. Officers were Stacy Smith, president; Donald Benton, vice president; Suellen Syler, secretary-treasurer.

Exploring Absorbs Club Members

"To explore, find, and preserve the Earth's past was our main goal as members of the Archeology Club," stated Rochelle Belville, club member.

For money, members sold hornet hat pins to help promote school spirit. Other projects included compiling old recipes for a cookbook, and having a bake sale. A field trip was made to the Chinese Bronze Age Exhibit, and numerous trips were taken for exploring purposes.

Officers were Steven Smith, president; Michele Belville, vice president; Rochelle Belville, secretary; Melanie Stracener, treasurer; Lou Ann Valentine, historian. Mr. Terry Parker served as club sponsor.

Club sponsor Mr. Terry Parker shows Wayne Pike an unusual fungus on the grass.

Club Members Increase Leadership

Learning different phases of leadership was the main objective of the Industrial Cooperative Training Program at AHS. Striving to reach goals set by the VICA club for self improvement, the thirty-six members of ICT worked at various jobs throughout the community.

Members attended many conferences throughout the year to improve leadership skills. Club members sold M&M candy to raise money. Two members of the local ICT were elected to offices at the district and state level. Kay Lanier served as district representative, and Francie Beck as state secretary.

Officers were Francie Beck, president; Michael Houston, vice president; Susan Anderson, secretary; Leslie Billups, treasurer; Jeff Anding, sergeant-at-arms; Wayne Brown, parliamentarian; and Sonja Fulton, reporter.

Junior Robby Timmerman uses his skills as a mechanic to aid in the repair of a tire.

HECE Learns Working Skills

"To be the best employee possible, maintain good attitudes towards an employer, and develop excellent work habits are the primary goals of the Home Economics Cooperative Education program," stated Mrs. Nancy Hickman, sponsor of HECE.

HECE participated in many community service projects. Students decorated nursing homes, and gave the South Elementary kindergarten a Christmas party. They also participated in conventions in Waco and San Antonio.

For their money making project, club members sold popular Hornet Fan buttons. Cedric Ingram served as club president.

Teacher's aide Perletha Curtis enjoys a chat with one of the students she teaches at South Athens Elementary.

Retail Skills Learned

Learning wholesale and retail merchandising skills were primary objectives for students in the Distributive Education program. In order to raise money, a school store selling school supplies and snacks was operated by DE members around $300 was netted for the year.

DE members attended the Pine Tree Conference and Area Two Conference in Longview. Although there were no winners everyone did their best in competition.

Officers were Gayla Yarbrough, president; Travis Elledge, vice president; Bryan Almon, secretary; Kim Jackson, treasurer; Bill Carlow, parliamentarian; and Tam Hollingsworth, historian. Advisor for DE was Mr. Bill Campbell.

Students Practice Office Skills

Office Education Association, sponsored by Mrs. Susan Burkhart, was made up of Vocational Office Education students. Members had a productive year of contests and other activities.

Students held their money-making project in November, a sale of Merry bells, candles, key chains, stuffed animals, and posters.

Members attended the regional conference in Waxahachie where Lou Ann Valentine received fifth in Stenography I. Lou Ann and Janice Koehler were voting delegates in the state conference in Austin. Cindy Cox and Leah Weatherford were voting delegates in the national contest in San Antonio.

Officers for OEA were Lou Ann Valentine, president; Robin Richardson, vice president; Carol McElhany, secretary; Renee Youngman, treasurer; Nancy Vaught, parliamentarian; Sheri Thomas, historian; and Leah Weatherford, reporter.

Lesa Advances to Area Choir

The Choir participated in many activities beneficial for the students of AHS. These included a spring and Christmas concert, singing the school song during football season and caroling down the halls at Christmas.

Sonja Fulton, Lesa Hart and Charlie Jackson were members of the Region III Choir and Lesa advanced to Area Choir. Members went to the Solo and Ensemble contest in Allen and Laurie Woods, Charlie and Lesa received first division in solos and will advance to state. For the first time a girls chorus was organized and received a second division at concert and sight reading contest in Garland. Director for choir was Mrs. Mamie Downing.

A sextet of Melanie Stracener, Rochell Belville, James Threatt, Michele Belville, Diane Minchew, and Dave Gabbard sing "Even Now" during the Spring Concert.

NHS Growth Noted

Members of the National Honor Society at NHS strived to reach goals of scholarship, leadership, service and character. A formal banquet inducted 31 new members. Leigh Ann Harville and Robert Key received the awards of Mr. and Miss NHS. An all time high club membership of 63 students was achieved.

Officers were Mike Nieman, president; Julie Mathes, vice president; Vivian Barker, secretary; Leigh Ann Harville, treasurer. Sponsors were Mrs. Kathryn Harville and Mrs. Esther Edwards.

The spring banquet includes a song by Janice Koehler.

After an excellent meal Dianne Soisson, Gayla Yarbrough and Michael Houston wait for the rest of the program to begin.

Waymond Warren presents Mrs. Agatha Warren with Teacher of the Year award.

FTA Honors Mrs. Warren

Speech and Drama teacher, Mrs. Agatha Warren, received FTA's "Teacher of the Year" award. Mrs. Warren has taught at Athens High School for six years. She transferred from Brownsboro High School where she taught one year. Mrs. Warren has done well in UIL events, with many of her students placing at zone, district and regional competition.

Mrs. Warren is a graduate of Henderson County Junior College and East Texas State University where she received her degree in speech and drama.

Mrs. Agatha Warren is presented with the UIL play award by Mr. James Stacks at the Awards Assembly.

Students Practice Teach

Members of Future Teachers of America were very active at AHS, sponsoring various activities. Members sold candy as a money-making project, elected a Teacher of the Month every month, and student taught. In district competition Chris Thomas placed second in the Mr. FTA competition.

Officers were Waymond Warren, president; Darnetta Staples, vice president; Debbie Gurley, recording secretary; Kaye Buchanan, corresponding secretary; Donna Foster, treasurer and Wyatt Park, historian. Sponsor for this club was Mrs. Rita Curington.

Holding the attention of his class, Devan Tretsven gives the assignment for the day.

Class projects include working with pigs, as demonstrated here by Todd Fowler and Gene Fortson.

Club Sets High Goals

The Future Farmers of America club was one of the largest and most active organizations at AHS. FFA was designed to take its place along with other organizations striving for development of leadership, building of a more permanent agriculture, and improving country life.

Club members sold football programs at all home games, and also had their annual fruit sale. Their major project was to show animals at the area stock shows.

Officers were Jerry Tumlinson, president; Kerry Hatton, vice president; Stacy Smith, secretary; Tommy Campbell, treasurer; Greg Godwin, reporter; Lloyd Giles, sentinel. Sponsors were Mr. Gary Holiman and Mr. Philip Burkhalter.

FFA members Tracy Miller, Jerry Tumlinson, and Kevin Paroline take notes and pay attention as Mr. Philip Burkhalter gives instructions.

Athenian Delayed by Etc.

Hopefully, there are no blank pages in the 1981 Athenian, but for a while it looked as if the book might never be finished. For a myriad of reasons progress became more and more hard to see as deadlines came and went. Exam week in May found staff members frantic and their sponsor past the point of civility.

Finally, things began to fall in place, and the year of 1980-81 became recognizable in pictures and words.

People People People People People People People People

School life was made more bearable by friends sharing the same highs and lows. Renewed friendships brought happiness to students, just as meeting new friends caused contentment. There were fights and disagreements between some but the majority enjoyed each other's company, and for those that didn't get along, they were . . .

Administrative personnel and board members assemble in late May for commencement at the HCJC gymnasium.

Board Records Smooth Year

School board members continued to consider new improvements for AISD students while staying within a reasonable financial budget to satisfy taxpayers.

Routine business included personnel matters, the purchase of furniture for some classrooms, adoption of textbooks, accepting bids on insurance and ordering two new vans.

In addition, the board considered proposals by Athens Classroom Teachers Association and heard a request for major renovation of athletic facilities. Students who excelled during the year received recognition in the form of Board Certificates.

In April, Mrs. LaVerne Coker and Mr. Jerry Taylor were elected to the seats held by Mr. Kenneth McGee, whose term expired, and Mr. Bill Park, who resigned.

Mr. Jimmy Clancy had a big surprise awaiting him on the high school campus on the day of his birthday.

1. Brookshires' employee, Buddy Peters arranges lettuce for an eye-catching display. 2. NHS member Russ Richardson reaches new heights at his job at Dairy Queen. 3. Hanging out at the Udder Delight is a favorite pastime of Randy Logan, Brian Mackley and Kelly Thomas. 4. Opening accounts at local banks prepares students for a rainy day.

Advertising Advertising Advertising Advertising Advertising Advertising Advertising Advertising

Involvement in business was a shocking experience for most students. Employment became an important part of many students' lives. Rising prices were easily recognized by both the employed and the jobless. The economy seemed bleak, students worried about their future and were afraid of being left . . .

You can help.

You've heard a lot about the need to conserve electricity and all forms of energy. Not only does conservation help save our nation's precious energy resources, it helps you and your family save money since the cost of energy is a big chunk out of most families' budgets. You can help your family by doing your part... make sure you close doors and windows when the heating or air conditioning unit is on; don't "graze" when you raid the refrigerator - know what you want before you open the door; hot water takes energy - try a shorter shower; and make sure the television or stereo is off when you're through with it. Work with your family to save energy now... you'll help make sure there will be enough for everyone when you start a family of your own.

Hostages Come Home

Americans watched with anticipation on January 20, 1981, as the 52 American held hostages in Iran for 444 days returned to freedom and as Republican Ronald Reagan was inaugurated as President on the same day.

The nation and world were shocked by the murder of ex-Beatle John Lennon, only to be stunned again by an unsuccessful attempt on President Reagan's life and a later attempt on the life of Pope John Paul. Concerns too were focused on religious unrest in Northern Ireland, civil war in El Salvador, labor disputes in Poland and the ever-troubling conflicts in the Middle East.

The Texas legislature re-districted the state, raised the drinking age to 19 and struggled to find remedies for the constitutional violations found in the state prison system by a federal judge.

The Houston Astros impressed baseball fans by making it to the National League finals, only to lose and see the Philadelphia Phillies take the World Series. Oakland's Raiders won Super Bowl XV; the NBA crown went to the Boston Celtics and Pleasant Colony won the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, with the Belmont still to be run.

A ticker tape parade honors the former 52 hostages after their return to the U.S. Thousands of well-wishers turned out across the nation, wherever the 52 went.

Trees planted in memory of deceased students are looked after by Student Council members Joel Stukas, Gina Dunn and Mary Harrup. 3. Head cheerleader Kristy Young "rides off into the sunset" at a morning pep rally. 4. Final locker clean up was a messy experience for Senior hall. Kim Ramsey, Kathryn Skelton and Tracy Adair clean up their mess. 5. Miss Norma Kleiber and Mrs. Sara Cannon wave from a "choo-choo train" while attending an "educational" trip to Austin.

And so it ended, a year marked by progress . . . not only in school regulations, but mostly in the attitudes of students. Although no astounding changes were seen, small fires were lit in the hearts of caring students. The ignition of school spirit was evident. Returning underclassmen would be left to carry on the struggle. Graduating Seniors would be facing a new type of struggle and next year, they would all be . . .

Brian -

I can't tell ya how glad I am that I got to know you and V.C. Your book are "really" special. Especially you cuz for some strange reason you've got more of a personality! The ride to and from Frontier this summer wouldn't have been the same with out you! I wouldn't have been very fun! So... after you graduate and now, you be good! You've got more friends then anybody I know and we are all behind you 100%! and if you ain't good I'll have to dog you again!

Good Luck and God Bless

Love ya,

Julie S.

Brian -
Well where do I start. I mean like I've known you for quite awhile - but this year is the year I really got to know you. Well I'm glad if you don't come back to Mrs. Edwards together & well I think I'll kill you. Cause your the laugh of that period. Be good + please (if its possible) stay out of trouble.

Dad bless you.
Love,
Julie

Take it easy + I love ya!
Darlene!

Thank goodness this is our last year! And I know we're both happy that we got our favorite teacher Mrs. Rohrer! Haha! Brian - don't be too hard on the woman! I'm glad we have classes together this year. You're really a great + nice guy. Brian - I wish you the very best of luck in everything you do.

 This is our big year and I can truly say you'll be one I'll never forget.
 You are a crazy guy and I know well have lots of fun this year. One day when you strike spit rich - take me

Brian -
 All I have to say is... that I love you! very much... and I care about you alot! I know sometimes things things you feel like you have to do, but that's just part of life. But we also learn from our mistakes! why not go for it, it might just work out for the best! That's my ~~opinion~~ opinion!! You are loved about and loved alot! (between you and I) So never forget that! I don't care what happens! You a great guy and alot going for you!! I have just believe me and trust me!!

Brian,

I'm glad I'm signing yours 80-81 annual, because you made the year for me. You are a very special person. I could probably write a book in memories I have about you. I think I've seen you from every point of view, but yet I still don't know you sometimes. You're really a neat person & I hope we stay friends forever. You have taught me alot. Sometimes it was by "the hard way" though.

I love ya!

Love

Brian,

I really like you alot. You're a fun guy, you have a terrific personality & on top of those things you're a FOK! Be a good guy & don't get in any more trouble. O.K.

Brian,

Well, I'm signing this right before lunch, I'm hungry, I wish we were going to May's! We've had alot of fun (Junior float, playing with Uncle Vic, Mr. Smith's room, and just plain riding around killing time!) Oh! I almost forgot, going to your church softball games (sorry I made you lose) and hitting Ken's afterward! Don't ever forget the great times we've had because I won't. Let's have some more good times because this is our Senior year and we need to "live it up". Never change, Brian, cause I like you just the way you are!

Love,

Shannon Spencer

P.S. We need to work up a skit for the Band folks!

Brian,

We've had good times and bad and we've loved you through every minute of them. We'll always remain good friends.

Love,

Leslie

Brian -

For my favorite nephew!

Brian, you've been such a good friend of mine all through high school! I'll never forget all our visits on your porch visiting! Also, when we built the Lamson Jr. float in the Mackley garage! We couldn't have done it without you! I hope we'll remain friends throughout our life, and I hope our Sr. year brings us many memories.

 I had begun to worry if ~~we~~ ^{it} ever would come.
 You've been a great friend all these years. I am thankful for that. The Mackley family is very special to the Wofford family. I hope we can keep in touch after I leave next spring. (Yes!) You're really special. I hope that, whatever it is life, you will get. I know that you will. Thanks again for

Brian,

You are really terrific guy. I'm glad you called me about Mon's last year, otherwise I probably wouldn't know you today. Your

I'm so glad I've had the pleasure of getting to know you. You're one helluva guy & a great football player. I don't know whether you know it or not but I think a lot of you. I've really learned a lot from you.
I can honestly say you're the sweetest guy in A.H.S.
Stay the same & I know you go far in life. I hope you have everything
you want in life.

 Well, I really don't know where to start. You are so much fun to be around. You are so crazy and can make a joke out of most anything. Words tell you what you mean a joke have always been so sweet and I can't standing. It's hard to believe you are going to be graduating this year. You will achieve any goals will never forget. I know you will achieve any goals that you think for and I wish you all the luck in the world. I will remain friends in the future. I hope you hope we will stay sweet and I wish you wouldn't have it senior year is a blast and I know you always any other way. Stay sweet and I wish you always but most of all, thank you for being such a terrific guy and friend.

Thinking back maybe all the goals weren't met, maybe all the grades weren't great and maybe all those terrific dates weren't so terrific. But there's satisfaction in knowing that despite frayed nerves and broken hearts, you make it through. For those graduating, we wish you the best and for those returning, we hope you will always be . . .

Hoping for more
